

Gordon's Gazette

April 30, 2009

Specials:

Friday-Mock Relay., Monday-Art, Tuesday-Media, Wednesday-Music, Thursday-P.E.

Class News:

- I will be at Baskin Robbins tonight from 5-6 p.m. for Big Shanty Scoop Night. I hope to see you there! The Baskin Robbins is located on Hwy. 41 near Kohl's (Acworth).
- Tomorrow, the entire school will participate in the Mock Relay for Life. Please have your child dress appropriately and wear tennis shoes. Also, each child and teacher is being asked to donate $1 tomorrow if possible.
- We are requesting 2 stamps per student to be used for report cards and other paperwork to be mailed after the end of the school year. If you can send more, it would be greatly appreciated. Thank you to the Burgan family for sending in extras!
- We are going to have a Survivor theme the last week of school. Please send in toilet paper or paper towel tubes. Also, if you have any ideas for games and activities please e-mail me.
- In science, we will begin our Adaptation unit. We will be learning about how animals adapt to their environment.
- In social studies, we will continue studying Westward Expansion. In this unit, we will study the Trail of Tears, benefits of industry, Erie Canal, the Alamo, etc.

Just a Reminder:

- Don't forget to check www.engage.com for 3rd 9 weeks grades!
- Please sign and review your child's agenda daily.
- All transportation changes must be put in writing.
- Please check your child's lunch balance. This is a prepay program. It is free to check using Meal Pay online (go to Big Shanty's website).
- If your child is absent, please send a note explaining the absence when your child returns to school.
