

Gordon's Gazette

May 7, 2009

Specials:

Friday-Assembly, Monday-P.E., Tuesday-P.E., Wednesday-P.E., Thursday-Art

Class News:

- No lunch charges will be allowed during the last 2 weeks of school. Please make arrangements if your child owes lunch money.
- Please have your child bring in used books for the Student Council Book Drive by tomorrow!
- Yearbooks will be sold May 12 and 13 from 7:15-7:45. Yearbooks will not be given at that time, but they may be purchased. They will be distributed May 18.
- We are requesting 2 stamps per student to be used for report cards and other paperwork to be mailed after the end of the school year. If you can send more, it would be greatly appreciated. Thank you to the Burgan family for sending in extras!
- We are going to have a Survivor theme the last week of school. Please send in toilet paper or paper towel tubes. Also, if you have any ideas for games and activities please e-mail me.
- In science, we will begin our Adaptation unit. We will be learning about how animals adapt to their environment.
- In social studies, we will finish studying Westward Expansion and begin learning about Abolitionists and Suffragists (specifically Harriet Tubman, Sojourner Truth, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton). The Westward Expansion test will be on Wednesday.

Just a Reminder:

- Don't forget to check www.engage.com for 3rd 9 weeks grades!
- Please sign and review your child's agenda daily.
- All transportation changes must be put in writing.
- Please check your child's lunch balance. This is a prepay program. It is free to check using Meal Pay online (go to Big Shanty's website).
- If your child is absent, please send a note explaining the absence when your child returns to school.
